

I have heard Boris Feiner on several occasions, and what struck me was his ability to express him self in a honest and in a sincere way. He has an enriched musical sensitivity and constantly tries to answer musics needs. Boris plays with his heart but uses all his senses to create a fine phrase. He is an excellent pianist and a musician with artistry.

I hope that you will facilitate his request in taking part in your program.

Sincerely,

I. Golan
